Homely comfort down to the smallest detail:

Carado caravans impress through their modern well thought-out layouts and the numerous convenient ideas. Here you will find everything you need to travel in comfort. Discover the breathtaking diversity of possibilities!

A minor conversion has a major effect:

For example, in the incredibly spacious C 255. Its generous round seating group can be converted instantly into a giant double bed 211 cm long. Even the tallest person will sleep comfortably here. Together with the 200 cm long double bed, up to four persons can sleep overnight in this model. The large bed boxes provide valuable stowage space and are accessible from outside through a hatch (option). The generous kitchen unit is equipped with a three-burner hob, large size sink, a separate sideboard with plenty of work top space and a 150 litre refrigerator with separate freezer compartment (option).

Attractive and practical:

The C 205 and C 255 models boast a double bed as well as a generous open bathroom – here you have plenty of room to move. The entrance is additionally highlighted by an illuminated glass-fronted cupboard with two shelves.

Stylish interior:

The interior appointments of your Carado caravan not only feature a very high standard of workmanship but also timeless design so you can feel completely at home right from the beginning. The homely character of the furniture finish is stylishly complemented by cream-coloured inlays on the cupboard doors and hatches. The floor covering is in a matching split bamboo look. Other features include the recessed mood lighting and designer corner lights above the round seating group. Complete this harmonious blend to your own taste – with either the elegant Monaco or Valencia fabric collections.

Luxury sleeping comfort:

All Carado fixed beds (with the exception of the bunk berths) are fitted with high-quality cold foam mattresses and wooden slatted supports as standard. A special experience awaits you in the C 419 with its 195 cm long queen-size bed that you can access from three sides. The bed boxes offer plenty of stowage space – the 195 cm long single beds in the C 417 can also be converted into a large sleeping area (option). Both layouts also provide generous space for your holiday clothing in the ultra large wardrobe and it is even supplemented by a practical shoe cupboard at the entrance.

Clever design:

The "children's room layouts" C 363 and C 364 offer comfortable berths for up to 5 persons: a front bed for two persons, the seating group that converts into a bed and two bunk berths at the rear. The folding bunk berth has a large bed box to take all the children's toys. The bed box is accessible through an outside hatch. The stowage concept also includes linen compartments next to the bunk berths – all in all it means plenty of space for all members of the family.

An easy way to make even more space:

The C 363 offers additional stowage space in the form of spacious high boards. Similar to the C 205 and C 255 layouts, this family caravan also has a fold-up double bed in the front. Its spacious bed box is accessible through an outside hatch (option). The kitchen on the C 364 is fitted with an optional 150 litre fridge with separate freezer compartment to feed all the hungry mouths on board with delicious treats.

Practical and childproof:

On the two children's room layouts, the kitchen units are directly opposite the generous half seating group. You can then serve food directly from kitchen to table – ideal when children are playing in the caravan!
