Frequently asked questions

In what forms is the DüsseldorfCard available?

The DüsseldorfCard is available as a print@home ticket, as a stick-on token or as a Rheinbahn ticket.

What advantages does the DüsseldorfCard offer?

You can use bus and rail services in Düsseldorf and surroundings free of charge, and you get concessions of up to 100% on over 70 offers, such as guided tours of the city, museums, souvenirs and much more.

In what area am I allowed to use the DüsseldorfCard for travel?

You can use all bus and rail services and all surcharge-free trains (RE, RB, S-Bahn, 2nd class) in the fare zone Düsseldorf Central/North (fare zone 43) and neighbouring fare zones.

From when is my DüsseldorfCard valid and for how long?

The DüsseldorfCard is valid for 24, 48, 72 or 96 hours from the specified time.

Why does the cardholder's name have to be written on the DüsseldorfCard?

The DüsseldorfCard is issued to a specified individual. With the print@home ticket, your name will already be entered when making the booking. For the paper card and the Rheinbahn ticket, you will need to write in your name before you use the card.

Can someone else use my DüsseldorfCard?

No. The DüsseldorfCard is non-transferable. It is only valid in conjunction with an official identification.

What do I need to remember with regard to the Group Card?

Only one name is entered onto the Group Card. The members of the group must travel together.

Can I combine several discounts at once?

This is not possible. The discounts always relate to the standard price.
