

WELCOME TO A BAG OF WONDERS

15

Ludwigsburg Residential Palace

In 1704, Duke Eberhard Ludwig of Württemberg began building a hunting lodge, which became Ludwigsburg Palace, Germany's largest Baroque residence.

16

Weikersheim Palace and Garden

Weikersheim Palace, in northern Baden-Württemberg, is a well-preserved Renaissance palace known for its elegant gardens, ornate interiors, and historic charm.

23

Steiff Museum

Steiff's iconic teddy bears, known for the button in their ears, are showcased in the museum with rare exhibits from over 140 years of history.

22

Europa-Park Resort

Europa-Park offers over 100 attractions and shows across 16 European-themed areas and 6 themed hotels

17

Castle Hohenzollern

With battlements and towers, this 19th-century Neo-Gothic castle looks like a storybook fortress, standing on a site with a 1,000-year history.

18

Hohenzollern Palace Sigmaringen

Perched above the Danube, Hohenzollern Palace evolved from a fortress into a royal palace with fairytale towers, 60 miles south of Stuttgart.

24

Tripsdrill Theme Park

Tripsdrill theme park, Germany's first theme park, now features 100 attractions and a wildlife park with over 60 different animal species.

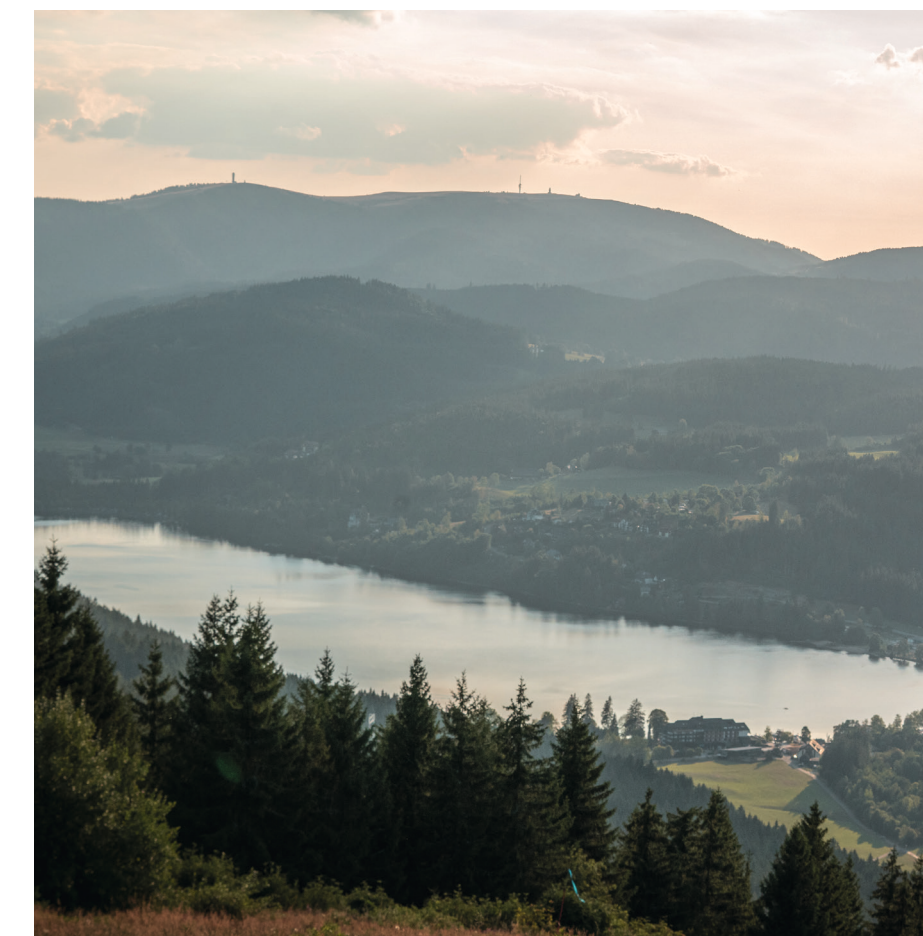

20

Mainau Island

The Flower Island in Lake Constance boasts year-round blooming gardens, ancient trees, Baroque architecture and a large butterfly house.

19

Lake Titisee

Lake Titisee is a charming lake surrounded by thick forests and pleasing villages, offering a serene setting for outdoor activities and relaxation.

21

Black Forest National Park Centre

The Black Forest National Park Centre Ruhestein offers interactive exhibits and stunning views, showcasing the region's natural beauty and biodiversity.

27

Outlets Metzingen

Outlets Metzingen is a premier shopping destination, offering a wide range of designer brands at discounted prices in a stylish, open-air setting.

26

Technik Museum Sinsheim

The Technik Museum Sinsheim showcases a vast collection of historic aircraft, automobiles, and interactive exhibits on technological innovations.